C. S. Howard, the bear hunter, whose ranch is fifteen miles south of here, was in town Saturday, and came very close to meeting with a serious accident. He was riding a spirited horse, which became frightened and shied, throwing Howard, whose foot was fast in the stirrup. He was dragged some little distance before he could disengage his foot. His ankle was badly sprained.

Half a dozen arc lights placed on prominent corners would be of great benefit to those who have business on the streets after the chickens go to roost. They would add a metropolitan appearance to the town, and serve as guardians to the inhabitants. The cost would be insignificant to the benefits derived therefrom. To the progressive town solon these remarks are intended.

Mrs. G. A. Bray was a passenger on No. 1 yesterday, on her way home in Prescott. Mrs. Bray has been visiting friends in the east for the past four months. A portion of her time was spent with her daughter, Mrs. Phillips, at Little Rock, Ark. Lieut. Phillips has been promoted to a captaincy in the Eleventh regulars, and has been ordered to join his regiment in Porto Rico. Mrs. Phillips will go with him.
